b) Bring out finely the part having the melody; in the third measure, in particular, the lower part in the right hand and the higher part in the left must be subordinated.

c) Execute this arpeggio by sounding the tones in rapid succession, from the lowest bass tone to the highest treble tone, and with a crescendo, so that the final tone is struck most forcibly.

- a) In these three measures the tenor, and in the third the alto as well, must be brought out as a melodic part, though subordinate to the soprano.
- b) Play these groups of unaccented grace-notes within the time-value of the fourth-sixteenth-note of their respective measures.
- c) Play the melody with a certain stress, but very delicately. d)
- e) These groups of 12 and 6 64th-notes are to be considered, like the succeeding ones, as respectively four-fold and double triplets of 64ths.

REV 2a

First system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Includes handwritten annotations: "REV", "esc.", "dim.", and "p". Fingering numbers 1, 4, 1, 3 are visible below the bass staff.

- a) As on p. 96, a).
- b) As on p. 96, c).

The image shows a handwritten musical score for piano, page 11. It consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The score is heavily annotated with handwritten notes, circles, and arrows. Key annotations include:

- System 1: "a tempo." written above the treble staff. Dynamics include rinf., sf, sf, sf, f(p), and p. There are circled triplets in both hands.
- System 2: "Coda. cantabile." written above the treble staff. Dynamics include f, p, rinf., sf, and pp. There are circled triplets and a circled section in the right hand.
- System 3: "cresc." written in the left hand. Dynamics include p, pp, and p. There are circled triplets and a circled section in the right hand.
- System 4: Dynamics include pp, p, and pp. There are circled triplets and a circled section in the right hand.
- System 5: "decrease." and "poco ritard." written above the treble staff. Dynamics include pp and pp. There are circled triplets and a circled section in the right hand.

Handwritten notes like "Rex" and "alt b)" are also present. The score ends with a double bar line and a fermata.

a) Make the highest part most prominent, the bass less so, and the inner parts least of all.

c) Here the higher part in the left hand must be brought out parallel with, yet subordinate to, the treble melody; the lower right-hand part should be most subdued, except in the passage in the next measure, which must be duly emphasized.

d) The inner part in the right hand must sound as the principal melody in this measure.
